

WITNESSES OF FAITH AND JUSTICE IN AMAZONIA

A spiritual reflection on the lived experience of indigenous leaders in the Amazon

Photo courtesy of REPAM

Date

March 23, 2017

Events

Presentation - 3:30pm

Mass - 5:10pm

Reception - 6:00pm

Location

Happel Room, Caldwell Hall
The Catholic University of America

Join us as Cardinal Claudio Hummes, OFM, Archbishop emeritus of São Paulo, Brazil discusses the importance of Laudato si' and the future of the Amazon and its peoples. Three indigenous leaders will share their stories of survival and hope.

In this forum we will explore the intersection of human rights, environmental justice, faith, international solidarity, extractive industries, and globalization.

For information and to register visit ipr.cua.edu.

Sponsored by:

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY of AMERICA

Institute for Policy
Research & Catholic Studies

REPAM
RED ECLESIAL PANAMAZÓNICA
Foro de vida en el corazón de la Iglesia